

Recycling Workshop

AT THE MINOT PUBLIC LIBRARY

SPONSORED BY THE ND SOLID WASTE AND RECYCLING ASSOCIATION

Join us for a free recycling workshop on Tuesday, December 11 from 6:30–8:30 p.m. in the North Community Room of the Minot Public Library (516 2 Ave. SW).

Learn more about disposal and recycling opportunities in the Minot area. Gain knowledge and meet others that are interested in recycling, composting and more. Not sure what can be recycled at home? Do you deal with disposal issues at your place of business? Representatives from the public and private sector, non-profit organizations, residents, teachers, students, local city or county council members and more are encouraged to attend.

- 6:30: Welcome, Angela Boeshans, Executive Director, ND Solid Waste and Recycling Assoc.
- 6:40: Local Program Highlights, Neil Scharpe, Director of Human Resources, The Recycling Center – Minot Vocational Adjustment Workshop
- 7:00: Recycling E-waste: Computers, TVs and more, Angela Boeshans, NDSWRA
- 7:20: Keeping it Out: Compost, Wood Waste, Household Hazardous Waste, Adrian Benz, Pollution Prevention and Recycling Coordinator, ND Department of Health – Division of Waste Management
- 7:40: It All Adds Up: Cell Phones, Ink Jet Cartridges, Sharps Program, Renae Beeter, Territory Manager, Waste Management, Inc.
- 8:00: Free Programs: Materials Exchange, Earth Day, Greener ND Award and more; Angela Boeshans, NDSWRA
- 8:15: Open Discussion

To ensure enough space and materials are available, please contact Angela at (701) 650-8857 or at angela.boeshans@hotmail.com by December 6th if you plan to attend.

The NDSWRA is a non-profit organization committed to educating, training and promoting environmentally sound waste management practices. Our members include municipalities, landfills, haulers, recyclers, individuals, educators, consultants, suppliers and more. For more information, visit www.ndswra.org.